NOTICE

Section 1924, Title 28, U.S. Code (effective September 1, 1948) provides:
“Sec. 1924. Verification of bill of costs.”

“Before any bill of costs is taxed, the party claiming any item of cost or disbursement shall attach thereto an affidavit, made by himself or by his duly authorized attorney or agent having knowledge of the facts, that such item is correct and has been necessarily incurred in the case and that the services for which fees have been charged were actually and necessarily performed.”

See also Section 1920 of Title 28, which reads in part as follows:
“A bill of costs shall be filed in the case and, upon allowance, included in the judgment or decree.”

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure contain the following provisions:
RULE 54(d)(1)

Costs Other than Attorneys’ Fees.

Unless a federal statute, these rules, or a court order provides otherwise, costs — other than attorney's fees — should be allowed to the prevailing party. But costs against the United States, its officers, and its agencies may be imposed only to the extent allowed by law. The clerk may tax costs on 14 day's notice. On motion served within the next 7 days, the court may review the clerk's action.

RULE 6

(d) Additional Time After Certain Kinds of Service.

When a party may or must act within a specified time after service and service is made under Rule5(b)(2)(C), (D), (E), or (F), 3 days are added after the period would otherwise expire under Rule 6(a).

RULE 58(e)

Cost or Fee Awards:

Ordinarily, the entry of judgment may not be delayed, nor the time for appeal extended, in order to tax costs or award fees. But if a timely motion for attorney's fees is made under Rule 54(d)(2), the court may act before a notice of appeal has been filed and become effective to order that the motion have the same effect under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(a)(4) as a timely motion under Rule 59.

08/06/2019	64	OPINION of USCA (Certified) as to 62 Notice of Appeal, filed by Sarah Palin USCA Case Number 17-3801-cv. This case is ultimately about the First Amendment, but the subject matter implicated in this appeal is far less dramatic: rules of procedure and pleading standards. Sarah Palin appeals the dismissal of her defamation complaint against The New York Times ("the Times") for failure to state a claim. The district court (Rakoff, J.), uncertain as to whether Palin's complaint plausibly alleged all of the required elements of her defamation claim, held an evidentiary hearing to test the sufficiency of Palins pleadings. Following the hearing, and without converting the proceeding to one for summary judgment, the district court relied on evidence adduced at that hearing to dismiss Palins complaint under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6). We find that the district court erred in relying on facts outside the pleadings to dismiss the complaint. We further conclude that Palin's Proposed Amended Complaint plausibly states a claim for defamation and may proceed to full discovery. We therefore VACATE and REMAND for proceedings consistent with this opinion.. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit. Certified: 8/6/2019. (nd) (Entered: 08/06/2019)

12/29/2020	125	MEMORANDUM ORDER granting 119 Motion for Reconsideration: For the foregoing reasons, defendants' motion is granted. The Court holds that N.Y. Civil Rights Law § 76-a, as amended on November 10, 2020, applies to this action and requires plaintiff, as a matter of state law, to prove by clear and convincing evidence what she had already been tasked with establishing under the federal Constitution: that defendants made the allegedly defamatory statements in the Editorial "with knowledge of [their] falsity or with reckless disregard of whether [they were] false" -- that is, with actual malice. See § 76-a(2). The Clerk of the Court is directed to close the entry at docket number 119. (Signed by Judge Jed S. Rakoff on 12/29/2020) (jwh) (Entered: 12/29/2020)

01/23/2022	158	ORDER: The Court has just learned that, based on a new safety protocol that will be implemented imminently, no one may unmask in the courtroom -- even in the HEPA-filter-outfitted witness and attorney boxes -- unless they have tested negative for COVID-19 using an approved molecular diagnostic test. (Antigen tests are not approved.) If a person will be removing his or her mask on successive days, the person may test on an every-other-day schedule; otherwise, the speaker must test negative on the day of his or her appearance. If a speaker has had a confirmed case of COVID-19 (verified by either a doctor's note or a viral test result) within the prior ninety days, he or she will be exempted from these testing requirements. Confirmation of negative test results (or of a prior case of COVID-19) must be provided to the Court through its staff, as further set forth in this Order. (Signed by Judge Jed S. Rakoff: Hearing held on 1/24/22. Present for the plaintiff: Kenneth Turkel, Michael Munoz & Shane Vogt, present for the defendant: David Schulz, Jay Brown, David Axelrod, Thomas Sullivan for the defendant, and a court reporter. Due to Plaintiffs positive tests for COVID-19, the trial is adjourned to 2/3/22. The Court ruled on the parties motions in limine, setting forth its reasoning on the record. The Court denied Defendants motion 159 for a ruling that the challenged statements are not defamatory per se, without prejudice to Defendants raising the issue again at the charging conference. The Court granted Defendants motion 132 to exclude the testimony of Plaintiffs damages expert. The Court granted in part and denied in part Defendants motion 137 , granting the prong of the motion seeking to exclude evidence about James Bennets departure from the New York Times but denying the rest of the motion without prejudice to reraising the objections if the evidence is offered. The Court denied Defendants motion 135 without prejudice to reraising the objections if the evidence is offered, except that the Court granted the aspect of Defendants motion seeking exclusion of articles concerning the Plaintiffs child. The Court denied Defendants motion 140 regarding case management issues, but the Court will read the jury a preliminary instruction immediately after opening statements are finished. The Court heard argument on and finalized the text of that preliminary instruction. Plaintiffs motion 129 is denied as moot, but each partys counsel shall identify for opposing counsel any objected-to, proposed exhibits they intend to reference during their opening statements. The Court will rule on any remaining objections to such exhibits before the start of trial. The parties shall file a joint, final, and binding list of witnesses in likely order of appearance on 2/1/22. 02/16/2022	172	ORDER: It is the Court's uniform practice after a verdict has been rendered in a jury trial to have the Court's law clerk inquire of the jury as to whether there were any problems understanding the Court's instructions of law, so that improvements can be made in future cases. Late yesterday, in the course of such an inquiry in this case -- in which the jury confirmed that they had fully understood the instructions and had no suggestions regarding jury instructions for future cases -- several jurors volunteered to the law clerk that, prior to the rendering of the jury verdict in this case, they had learned of the fact of this Court's Rule 50 determination on Monday to dismiss the case on legal grounds. These jurors reported that although they had been assiduously adhering to the Court's instruction to avoid media coverage of the trial, they had involuntarily received "push notifications" on their smartphones that contained the bottom-line of the ruling. The jurors repeatedly assured the Court's law clerk that these notifications had not affected them in any way or played any role whatever in their deliberations. The Court also notes that when it proposed to the parties, during oral argument on Monday morning, to render its Rule 50 decision later that day but to permit the jury to continue deliberating so that the Court of Appeals would have the benefit of both the Court's legal determination and the jury's verdict, no party objected to this plan. Nor did any party object when the Court reconvened later that day, outside the presence of the jury, and the Court indicated that it was prepared to issue a Rule 50 decision at that time. Indeed, no party objected to this procedure at any time whatever. Nevertheless, in an excess of caution, the Court hereby brings the foregoing facts to the parties' attention. If any party feels there is any relief they seek based on the above, counsel should promptly initiate a joint phone conference with the Court to discuss whether any further proceedings are appropriate. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jed S. Rakoff on 2/16/2022) (kv) (Entered: 02/16/2022)

03/01/2022	196	OPINION: At trial, plaintiff Sarah Palin wholly failed to prove her case even to the minimum standard required by law. Accordingly, defendants the New York Times Company (the "Times") and James Bennet moved to dismiss the case prior to the start of jury deliberations. After hearing extensive argument, the Court granted the motion shortly after the jury had begun its deliberations. This Opinion sets forth the reasons for that decision, as well as the reasons for how the Court then dealt with the deliberating jury. (as further set forth herein). For all the reasons set forth above, the Court entered final judgment as a matter of law in favor of The New York Times Co. and James Bennet, because no reasonable jury could find that Sarah Palin proved that the defendants published "America's Lethal Politics" with actual malice. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jed S. Rakoff on 3/1/2022) (kv) (Entered: 03/01/2022)

The Court also granted defendants unopposed motion for leave not to file an initial notice of taxable costs, as required by Local Rule 54.1, and instead to file any notice of taxable costs by no later than 30 days after the Court issues its decision on the post-trial motions. 05/31/2022	203	OPINION AND ORDER re: 195 MOTION to Disqualify Judge retroactive to August 28,2020, and setting aside/vacating rulings and orders made by the Court during that time. MOTION approval to interview members of jury concerning their receipt of push notifications during trial . MOTION for Reconsideration , Reargument and/or Rehearing of Court's decision under Rule 50. MOTION to Set Aside Verdict and Final Judgment and granting Plaintiff a new trial. filed by Sarah Palin. The meritless accusations of impropriety in Palin's motion cannot substitute for what her trial presentation lacked: proof of actual malice. This requires, under both Supreme Court precedent and New York State statutory law, clear and convincing evidence that Bennet and the Times published "America's Lethal Politics" knowing that it was false or in reckless disregard of its falsity. See New York Times v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254, 280 (1964). And, as the Supreme Court has likewise held, this high standard cannot be satisfied simply by a negative inference drawn from discrediting Bennet's denials. See Anderson, 477 U.S. at 256. Here, Palin still cannot identify any affirmative evidence to support the essential element of actual malice. This absence is not a consequence of trial procedures, judicial bias, or adverse evidentiary rulings. It is, in the Court's view, a reflection of the facts of the case. To be sure, as the Court itself recognized even it is initial statement of its Rule 50 decision, the evidence showed that Bennet and the Times's Editorial Board made mistakes as they rushed to meet a print deadline, and that their editorial processes failed to catch those mistakes before publication. See Tr. 1303-1304. But in a defamation case brought by a public figure like Sarah Palin, a mistake is not enough to win if it was not motivated by actual malice. And the striking thing about the trial here was that Palin, for all her earlier assertions, could not in the end introduce even a speck of such evidence. Palin's motion is hereby denied in its entirety. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Jed S. Rakoff on 5/31/2022) (kv) (Entered: 05/31/2022)

- Tickets are non-transferable.
 - Changes to your itinerary may affect your fare. Refund and exchange restrictions and penalties for failure to cancel unwanted travel may apply. If your travel plans change, contact us before departure to change your reservation. If you do not board your train, your entire reservation from that point will be canceled. For more information please visit Amtrak.com/changes.
 - Summary of Terms and Conditions: Ticket valid for carriage or refund (subject to the refund rules of the fare purchased) for twelve months after day of issue unless otherwise specified. Amtrak tickets may only be sold or issued by Amtrak or an authorized travel agent/tour operator. Tickets sold or issued by an unauthorized third party will be voided by Amtrak. This ticket is a contract of carriage which includes specific terms and conditions and a binding arbitration agreement between Amtrak and the ticket holder. The terms and conditions and arbitration agreement are available at Amtrak.com/terms-and-conditions.html. Tickets sold for non-Amtrak service are subject to the tariffs of the providing carrier.
